WASHINGTON, July ... Official information from Constantinople states that Turkey will preserve strict neutrality.

An official dispatch from Minister Washburne at Paris states that France will not except German steamers from seizure unless they are ... of war although they may carry United States mail.

New York Specials from Europe

NEW YORK July 22. The Tribune's London special of the 23d says army movements on both sides are slow. Prussia was actually taken by surprise. Nobody contemplated war hence her concentration of forces are less advanced than those of France. Infantry reserves were arriving at Berlin on Tuesday and regiments were expected to march on Friday. The enthusiasm and confidence is increasing daily still financial and commercial distress is great.

It is perfectly understood that if the German army is victorious it will march to Paris. Railroad freight and passenger traffic closes on the 25th.

Gottingen University is closed, and all others will do so soon. The students are all enlisting at Strasburg. Additional works of defense are in progress. The garrison numbers six thousand men besides one thousand in camp.

The correspondent arrested at Metz yesterday is now reported to be W H Russell journeying toward Prussia.

The French expeditionary forces are expected to sail from Cherbourg on Saturday.

It is decided that the Inman Line shall carry the whole of the American mails.

Excitement in North Carolina

CHICAGO, July 23. Political excitement runs very high in North Carolina especially in counties where martial law has been declared and the writ of habeas corpus suspended. The course which the Governor has taken is increasing rather than quieting the disorder.

Interior California Dispatches

STOCKTON, July ... —Three stacks of wheat containing 3,000 bushels, were destroyed by fire last night, near Woodbridge. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

BY THE CABLES.

PARIS July 22.—The Journal Officiel publishes a circular of the Minister of Foreign Affairs dated the 21st, addressed to the Diplomatic Legation of France at foreign capitals.

Evening journals report several skirmishes yesterday between the advance guards along the frontier. No details.

It is extremely difficult to obtain intelligence from the seat of war. Correspondents are strictly forbidden approaching army lines.

PARIS July 22—... P M. It was reported that the Prussian army has fallen back and taken up a defensive position between Coblentz and Mayence but the report is now contradicted.

General Lebœuf left Paris to-day for the front.

A proclamation from the Emperor to the French people is expected Sunday.

A manifesto to the Germans will follow to be introduced in Germany via Italy.

The volunteers enlisted for the war reach 90,000 and many ladies are in the service as nurses.

Vessels have been sent to Newfoundland for the protection of French fishermen.

The Journal Officiel reprints from La France a serious accusation against Count O Bray, Bavarian Minister. He is charged with misleading the Bavarian Chambers by announcing that the French troops succeeded in forming the Chambers to vote the required subsidies.

The municipal election in France will be held August 6th.

The Herald's special says Prussia proposes that the Baltic be neutralized but France refuses.

Russia is reported to favor France.

The Prussian forces concentrating at Coblentz, South Germany, will abandon Prussia at the first opportunity.

PARIS July 22.—The Emperor came to Paris to-day and received the Corps Legislatif at the Tuileries.

It is reported that Prim met Prince Leopold on the French and Spanish frontiers.

LONDON July 22.—It is said that the Prussians will adopt a defensive line from Coblentz and along the Rhine. Bismarck and Moltke are confident of success. It is said Count Palikao will command an expedition to enter Prussia through Denmark. The Garde Mobile has been called into active service.

Switzerland asks of France that Chablais and Faucigny be declared neutral ground which is refused.

ANTWERP, July 22.—The English fleet is expected at the mouth of the Scheldt where pilots are waiting for them.

BERLIN July 22.—The Prince Royal Frederick William commands the left of the Prussian army, Prince Frederick Charles the center and Herr Warth von Bittenfeld the right. Defenses of the coast are entrusted to General von Falkenstein. The staff will be the same as during the war 1866. Gen Dereys will command the advance over the Rhine. Saarbrucken will be in the center of operations. More than a hundred thousand volunteers are enrolled in Germany.

LONDON July 22.—Details of the massacre of foreigners at Pekin are received. The first account did not exaggerate the horrors of the affair. Neither age nor sex were spared. Some persons were burned to death in the buildings destroyed.

VIENNA July 23.—It is believed here that the neutrality of Russia and Austria is agreed upon. The neutrality of Spain is certain.

A great many shipwrecks have recently occurred on the German coast by reason of the removal of beacons.

Sailors of German ships now in English ports are returning to Prussia to enlist in the army and the English dock yards are emptied to man the Navy.

Martial law has been proclaimed in the Rhenish provinces of Prussia as well as in Hesse Schleswig Pomerania and Eastern Prussia.

The port of Hamburg is still open and traffic is undisturbed. The river Rhine is still open to public travel.

The Prussian head quarters are now at Kreuznach eight miles south of Bingen on the river Nahe.

The boldest address against infallibility in the Œcumenical Council was delivered by Archbishop Purcell of Cincinnati. He not only dealt radical blows at spiritual despotism but ridiculed the divine right of kings as folly of the past and declared that just government is established by the people and for the people and not for the benefit of rulers. Such sound republican doctrine proclaimed in such a body made a great sensation but many of the bishops congratulated the American archbishop on his courage and eloquence who did not approve of his doctrines.

Vindication of the "River of the West"

[CONCLUDED.]

I have previously given Dr McLoughlin's own statement of the Oregon City claim contest and a letter of Mr Thornton's. It will be remembered that the Doctor's attorney, Mr Hastings, proposed to ask for letters from some of the signers of a certain petition declaring whether or not they knew the contents of said petition. Such an appeal was made to the people and numerous letters were received exonerating Dr McLoughlin from the charges brought against him. Those letters are now in existence and I may yet think proper to publish them. Meantime I have permission to print the following history of the petition with a note appended which was written on the margin of an unpublished chapter by Hon Elwood Evans which was submitted to the correction of Mr Shortess.

ASTORIA, Sep 1, 186..

HON. E. EVANS ... Yours of July 16th arrived in due season but owing to absence and illness has been neglected—for which I trust you will forgive me.

The chapter (...) of the early history of Oregon is according to my recollection, substantially correct though I have discovered some inaccuracies which I shall proceed to point out and rectify as best I can. Page 202—Dr McLoughlin became an American citizen so that Dr White's idea was in part proven. Dr White was by no means an exception to the effects of the H B C's hospitalities. He made every effort to prevent petition of 1843 being forwarded—got it in his possession, and kept it until Mr Sutton who took it to the States had gone and A E Wilson and I had to send it after him by express.

I do not remember any person being refused goods at Vancouver as a consequence of signing it except myself and I only once, was refused ammunition on being, (I suppose) thought rather belligerent.

In a short time after the entire policy of the Company or at least of Dr McLoughlin underwent a change, and he the Doctor afforded very great facilities to immigrants and settlers for which in many cases, he received an ungrateful return. The reputed author of the petition, after some months of coolness and without any apology or explanation had the satisfaction to renew his former friendship with the Doctor which continued without interruption during his (the Dr's) life.

The authorship of that famed petition being claimed by Gov Abernethy I will state the part he had in getting it up. I without consulting any one determined on an application to Congress and drew up a summary of the subjects I intended to embrace in it and showed it to one or two persons. It was decided to request Mr Abernethy to write it out in proper form, which he did but refused to sign it or allow it to be circulated in his handwriting, fearing it might injure the mission. I had it copied by A E Wilson and in his hand it was circulated and through his assistance sent on its way to Washington. Whether it had any effect in producing the change of policy before mentioned, I leave others to decide but it is well known that Dr M was always anxious to stand well with the American Government. But requiescat in pace. He was a man of excellent qualities of head and heart and few men wielding the power that he did would have done it with greater lenity.

Not having the original document to refer to I do not think of anything further within the scope of your inquiry and as writing wearies me I close with assurances of my high respect and best wishes for your history. Respectfully yours

ROBERT SHORTESS

SHORTESS' NOTE TO MR EVANS' HISTORY PAGE 206

"As Governor Abernethy would feel himself unjustly treated if the authorship of the petition were ascribed to me I will state that he wrote it at my request and from my notes, but refused to sign it or have it circulated in his handwriting."

In the "River of the West" I have said: "But it was not after all, either the fur companies or the general government which directed the entering wedge in the settlement of the much talked of claims. It was the Missionary settlements which effected this." Page 2.. If Mr Thornton takes exceptions to this, he is referred to the following letter from one of the ministers of the M. E. Mission:

LETTER OF REV GUSTAVUS HINES TO HON ELWOOD EVANS—EXTRACT.

"In respect to the Americanization of Oregon allow me to say that to attribute it simply to the facts to which you refer in the 1..th chapter such as the appointment of Dr E White as sub agent of Indian affairs, the expedition of Col Fremont, the immigration of Dr Whitman etc would be in effect to pass over the real causes which produced the change for really those facts important as they are, are nothing but effects produced by causes which lie far back behind all those things to which you refer. To give my idea of the Americanization of Oregon allow me as the shortest way of doing it, to give you what is the substance of a remark made to the Hon Jesse Applegate than whom a more intelligent and better informed gentleman upon the subject of Oregon history cannot be found on this or any other coast. I simply give the substance. 'I have been conversant with everything pertaining to Oregon history from the beginning, have resided in the country since 1843, aided in the establishment of the Provisional Government and have been cognizant of all the causes which have operated to produce the results which we now behold and I am fully convinced that for the establishment of American civilization in Oregon and the saving of Oregon and Washington Territories to the United States against the claims of Great Britain and their preservation to the Union in the great Southern war we are indebted to the Missionary establishment under the direction of the M. E. Church.' If his views are correct and I am fully of the opinion that they are then it follows that no history of Oregon that does not recognize the fact will ever be considered correct or impartial or as entitled to be called the standard history of Oregon."

Let us follow this extract from Mr Hines' letter embodying the opinions of Mr Applegate and endorsing them by some more of Mr Applegate's opinions on Oregon history which agree equally well with those expressed in the "River of the West" and taken exceptions to by Mr Thornton.

"The H B Co's Board of Management in 1843 in view of probable loss passed a stringent order forbidding the members in Oregon to deal in bills or in any way to extend credit to settlers or citizens. Had this order been strictly obeyed by the Company it would have done Oregon more injury than White and all his missionary allies ever did it good. For when an Indian war did break out the order stood in the way of making any advances to the Oregon Government as it did also to relieving the wants of the destitute immigrants.

But the traders of the Hudson's Bay Company did not observe the ungenerous order; they furnished the necessary military stores on individual security and though its rival in trade the Methodist Mission did refuse credit to the most needy ... least able to pay, the more humane H B Co ... And as this departure from rule was made upon the responsibility of the autocrat Dr McLoughlin when he retired from the position of head of the Company in Oregon and became an American citizen the Company held him responsible for debts of this description to the amount of $60,000." Want of time while I am away from home and on the wing will probably prevent my following up this subject as I ought in justice but so much as the above I believe will be of interest to all Oregonians. F. F. VICTOR

"The Death Rate of New Orleans" is the subject of an article in a New York paper of the 4th which says: The excessively hot weather of the past week was attended by the aggravation of bodily disorders. It is reported by Dr Russel, the Register of Vital Statistics, that for fourteen years past there has not been so excessive a mortality as marked last week.

A Second Letter from Judge Boise

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In your paper of the 9th inst is another article devoted to me in which you undertake to detail my views and action relative to the reconstruction laws of Congress and you undertake to state wherein I have opposed those laws.

You say I opposed the bestowal of suffrage on the negroes in the Southern States. Your statement is not correct. I never opposed that act of Congress which allowed the negroes to vote in reorganizing the rebellious States. If you have been so informed you were misinformed.

You say my views on this and other subjects are well understood. I agree with you in that and would not care to make this statement if your paper circulated only where I am well known.

Again you say I was an ardent supporter of the reconstruction policy of President Johnson that early in 1866 when the rupture occurred between Congress and the President I warmly espoused the cause of the latter. That "it was determined by a number of politicians who met at Salem to make an effort to pledge the Republican party in this State to Johnson and against Congress. That telegrams were sent to different places to invite co-operation. And you say you think I will not deny that I participated in these proceedings." I do deny it and say that I never knew of any such proceedings or ever before heard of such meeting or of any telegrams being sent to invite co-operation in that behalf. And further I always claimed that the business of reconstruction belonged to Congress as representing the sovereign power of the nation and that the Executive had no authority to dictate the terms of reconstruction.

There was then a diversity of sentiment on that subject in the Republican party and I advised against making it a party issue at that time as I thought it might weaken the party and the State Convention that met soon afterwards adopted the same view.

I am aware that the Salem paper supported the President but that was without my advice and that paper contained many things during that controversy that I did not approve and I so expressed myself at the time.

Again, you say that I was present at a meeting called to consider the fourteenth amendment and that I opposed it and that within the last forty eight hours you have examined a witness on that subject. If there ever was such a meeting I have no knowledge of it and never heard of it before I saw it in your article.

I was present at Salem while that amendment was pending, and supported it and advised its adoption by our Legislature. Who is your witness and who were the other persons who composed that meeting? If I had conversations with gentlemen on that subject and stated my views on the amendment I am willing those gentlemen shall state what I said and as you say there were several persons present—that it was a regularly called meeting, at which your informant was invited, it is but fair and just to me that you should give the names and statements of all who heard what I said and not the version of one who may desire to misrepresent me.

Again, you say that I expressed the opinion that the reconstruction laws would prove the ruin of the Republican party and that in 1867 I said the party was lost. This is news to me. At that time I claimed that Gen Grant would be nominated and that the party would triumph, and I endorsed every resolution of the platform on which he was elected. And I have cordially endorsed every platform adopted by the party in this State since the party was organized.

If you have any more witnesses to prove that any of my statements are incorrect I hope you will produce them by name and not say that you have been informed it is generally understood, &c. I am willing to abide by the facts.

I wish you would insert this in your paper and I shall not object to any reply to it which states the truth. R P BOISE

DALLAS July 21 1870

CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA.

Another grand musical festival and a pomological festival have been arranged to take place at San Francisco.

Dr C C Spencer died at the Lick House San Francisco on Saturday. He was writing a book on Chinese labor as applicable to the South, when his fatal sickness overtook him.

A son of Capt Lees one of those injured at San Francisco by Chinese bombs on the 4th of July is out of danger. Constable Sam Harding is recovering. One boy died of lockjaw.

A row occurred at the Democratic meeting in the First Ward in San Francisco on Friday night in the course of which a man named Haley was struck on the head with a heavy cane and very seriously injured. Cause patriotism.

A letter from Lake Tahoe says: The little steamboat so long expected arrived last night the 11th. The hulk was drawn from Truckee by twelve yoke of oxen. They were four days on the road a distance of only fourteen miles.

One hundred baskets of Bartlett pears, the first of the season from Dott's orchard Grand Island, arrived in San Francisco on Saturday and were sold at eight cents per pound wholesale. The strawberry and peach crops are already exhausted.

The Courrier de San Francisco says that the subscriptions for the French Sanitary Fund in that city already reach the sum of six thousand dollars. Narjot the artist, has presented a painting to the Committee which will be sold for the benefit of the fund.

A San Francisco paper says: Iska Koshi Nose (sic) Kumbara, Jame Shaishiki and Tamara, Japanese students who arrived on board the steamer China and who belong to the families of Japanese Princes intend to complete their education in this city or Oakland. They intend to study our language and become acquainted with American arts and sciences.

The Chinese companies of San Francisco have forwarded the proclamation of General Winn notifying them to warn their people to cease immigrating to California to the Secretary of State at Washington and ask him to bring the matter of the threatened violence upon them before the President, Cabinet and Congress. Telegraphic correspondence on the subject is now going on.

The effect of the impending war is already shown in San Francisco by the sudden change in social intercourse. It is noticed that those of the opposing nationalities who have been friendly acquaintances for years past upon Change and in social circles—that is to say those of the separate nations, the French on the one hand, and the Germans on the other—it is marked that instead of the warm and friendly grasp of the hand and the pleasant salutation a reticent address is now observed. This extends even so far as to those having no sympathies on either side.

Few of the younger generation of eminent Englishmen would be as well received by Americans as Thomas Hughes of "Tom Brown" fame, is certain to be when he arrives in this country which will be about the middle of August. In his case there will be nothing to check the warmest expressions of genuine admiration for great talents devoted to noble purposes and for sympathy with our country shown pluckily at a time when our English friends were few and far between. Mr Hughes will find out in his three months' visit, how great a thing it is to win the gratitude of a great people.

A woman at Jacksonville Ill gave her little child the other day a drink of cold water out of the spout of a tea kettle. Soon after the child attempted to drink from the same vessel when it contained boiling hot water, and was scalded to death.

American [illegible] Railway Bonds The Northern Pacific

[illegible] the war in Europe [illegible] repudiation [illegible] our railroad bonds [illegible]

We do not know why we [illegible] the great English newspapers [illegible] such trust [illegible] to the country that habitually talk in the same strain. From the repudiation organs in America the Times takes its cue and as that paper has always been bitterly hostile to this country and its interests it is perhaps but natural that it should re-echo the sentiments of the repudiation copperhead press here.

But the Times has frequently [illegible] those who have believed in it. When our rebellion was at its height that great organ of British opinion [illegible] its [illegible] that the [illegible] Confederacy [illegible] and [illegible] them not to [illegible] the credit of the United States [illegible] Government [illegible] were fast crumbling away. The German bankers and people did not follow this advice but invested in our stocks and the exercise of their usual good sense in this has led them to their usual good luck. So now the appeals made by the Times to the Germans warning them not to give countenance to our railroad bonds will fall on unheeded ears.

But the war in Europe will certainly injure us in this particular as the supply of money for investment in our securities will be diminished by it. It will not be possible now to negotiate railway bonds on as good terms as could be obtained a short time ago and it is probable indeed that some of our much needed railway enterprises will be retarded. The Northern Pacific, as the greatest enterprise now under way may and doubtless will be to some extent unfavorably affected. In this view of things the war in Europe is likely to do [illegible] injury here. But this will be balanced by an increased demand in Europe for American products, at advancing prices.

We may mention in this connection that a new book has been issued in behalf of the Northern Pacific railway setting forth the resources of the country along the route of the road and describing its features from the Mississippi river to Puget Sound. This region of country is spoken of as the [illegible] Seat of Empire such being the title of the book. The volume abounds with all the information on the subject that could be collected and makes a highly favorable showing for the prospects of the road and the future of the country.

An Increased Police Force

The extent of lawlessness prevalent in the city and vicinity for some time past would seem to make it necessary that there be an increase of the regular police force of the city. The present regular force is too small for the protection of the city the detection of crime, the pursuit and arrest of evil doers and the maintenance of the peace. We think there will be little difference of opinion on this point. Undoubtedly there are many bad characters in and about the city. The strength of our police force is not nearly so great in proportion to the population as in most other places. We learn that an ordinance will probably soon be introduced in the Common Council to authorize the appointment of two or three additional police. It should pass promptly. The events of the past week have shown the necessity of an increase of the regular police force and the Common Council by taking action upon the matter, will respond to a very general demand on the part of our citizens.

Mr C B Bellinger has withdrawn from the leading editorial management of the Albany Democrat. He declares it to be his purpose never again to resume the pen editorial but to devote himself wholly to the legal profession. It is but just to say of Mr Bellinger that he has proved himself the ablest and most influential Democratic editor in the State, and that without his services last spring his party would certainly have been defeated. He it was who warned the party off the rocks and shoals of repudiation. Every other Democratic editor in the State was committed to that most odious doctrine, and was insisting upon it as a party measure. Mr Bellinger perceiving that such a course would result in certain defeat vigorously attacked and silenced all the repudiators and for the last eight weeks of the campaign would not permit one of them to utter a word in favor of it. He alone saved his party. Had the Albany Democrat taken the same course that was pursued by the Herald the Republicans would have swept the State.

The Bulletin makes the name of our river and valley the subject of an article, and concludes that the correct spelling of the name is Wallamet. No doubt those who read early documents of Dr McLoughlin relative to the Oregon City land claim, which we published a few days ago noticed that the orthography there employed was Wall [illegible] not Will, in the first syllable. We observe, too that this year the managers of the excellent educational institution at Salem have given us a catalogue of Wallamet University not Willamette. Among those who have examined this subject there is scarcely a difference of opinion as to the orthography of the name.

A telegram announces that the South German States will abandon Prussia at the first opportunity. It would seem that Prussia fears this inasmuch as she has ordered the troops of South Germany to the north and is sending her own troops south. The [illegible] of the French [illegible] to disunite the States of South Germany from Prussia. Their [illegible] was entered into at a time when the force of circumstances virtually compelled it and it is probable enough that if an opportunity is offered they will withdraw.

From the Statesman of Saturday: Yesterday a man from California with his family moved through Salem with a four horse team, on his way to Clackamas county where they have acquaintances. He seems to have left Napa valley considered one of the most beautiful and productive in California. He represents that crops in that valley will not average ten bushels per acre the present season.

The Chinese Question in Boston

[illegible] Boston [illegible] Gen [illegible] and [illegible] speech [illegible] In Boston William Lloyd [illegible] Elevating [illegible]

The only that has come with peace is [illegible] the want of men to do the work. At this moment a people of [illegible] the most industrious the most thrifty the most [illegible] convinced of the value of education are crowding from their overstocked land to our doors not as sturdy beggars but as honest laborers asking for work. Will you turn them away? Will you persist in refusing their help to make the national burdens lighter? If you really mean to reject this timely aid that Asia offers then [illegible] talk about acts of Congress to protect ship building and encourage commerce but use your iron to make a high wall all round the frontier plant a thick hedge of prickly pears outside and retire to your [illegible] and perhaps a thousand years hence some traveling Chinese will break down the barrier worse than his own great wall and find the remnants of our race as unintelligent as those of Central America and as useless to the world.

This is the first suit against Young as trustee, and others are now pending.

A Denver paper thinks that now, as the peaceful Utes are attacked by the bloodthirsty Cheyennes, there is a chance for the Eastern people to exhibit their sympathy for the poor Indian without any excessive tenderness toward white men. They may at least consent to the punishment of the Cheyennes for their assault on the Utes, if not for their murders of the miners in North Park.

Col Dana, Paymaster U S A, who has just made an extensive tour of Arizona reports a large number of discharged soldiers leaving the Territory. The Indians are everywhere troublesome. The Pinal Apaches are treating for peace. The engagement recently reported resulted in the death of their chief and forty horses. More troops are needed at almost every post in the Territory.

The Laramie Sentinel of July 9 publishes the following in relation to the Big Horn expedition: Judge Jones informed us that but little was known of the party since they left Camp Brown and struck out into the wilderness further than that they went beyond the reach or hearing of their friends among intensely hostile Indians and the Judge expressed the belief that not one of them would ever get out alive. Judge Jones would not express such an opinion if there were not the best grounds for apprehension of the worst.

Thiers replied to Ollivier saying: It is a blunder to make war with Prussia. She ought to have been attacked when she desired to unite the German States. The war would have been legitimate and we would have been sustained. Prussia has also committed a great fault in negotiating with Spain yet Prussia wished peace and we have war. "Then why such [illegible]? Why not state it at once?" "Well then if you must have it—" "Must? I will have it," vociferated the counsellor, interrupting the witness. BLACK REPUBLICAN CHERRIES—A CONTROVERSY.—A few mornings since we had occasion to notice a new variety of cherries specimens of which had been exhibited by Mr Henry Pretty[man]. That notice has brought out the following note from Mr Seth Luelling of Milwaukie:

EDITOR [illegible] I noticed in your paper a few days since that you had been presented with some Black Republican cherries by Mr Henry Prettyman. This is all right. Mr P having the cherries of course had a right to do what he pleased with them but in alluding to them he should have given a truthful history. I simply want to say [illegible] myself and that the public may know the truth that I am the originator of the Black Republican cherry. MONDAY MORNING JULY 25 1870

CITY.

THE SHOOTING OF FRANKLIN.—The feeling is almost universal in this city that the shooting of Franklin last Saturday morning was un[illegible] in every aspect of the case and an [illegible] not only upon the man himself but upon [illegible] other person in the community. It might [illegible] any other man just as well as Frank[illegible] this which brings the matter home [illegible] consideration of every man who [illegible] to be out on our streets at night. [illegible] who did it were properly enough on [illegible] keeping a lookout for a desperado. But [illegible] they pursued and shot had been [illegible] they had no legal or moral right [illegible], merely because he ran away [illegible] commanded him to halt. Running [illegible] such a resistance to lawful authority [illegible] deadly measures. The attempt to [illegible] the purpose of ascertaining whether [illegible] or another even if not accompa[illegible] violence was a sufficient straining [illegible] of the officer and of the rights of [illegible], though it might be excusable un[illegible] circumstances. If a stranger or citi[illegible] brought to a halt at midnight by [illegible] regular or special who may give [illegible] under penalty of being shot, it may [illegible] whether we are in the greater [illegible] robbers or officers. Three or four [illegible] call upon a man to halt, he does [illegible] whether they are officers or foot pads. [illegible] and they are foot pads he is robbed; [illegible] and they are officers he is shot. [illegible] not know whether the men who did the [illegible] authorized police or deputies of the [illegible], and do not care to inquire. We grant [illegible] did not intend to kill an inno[illegible] they had no right to shoot [illegible] suspicion or upon the chance [illegible] right man. Neither the Marshal [illegible] has such a right. Human life [illegible] forfeited by law for crime, is [illegible] thing to be put in peril for any less [illegible] the peril of life. It is right that this [illegible] investigated. If the men who [illegible] acted upon explicit instructions, [illegible] them that the facts be brought [illegible] published. If they had no instructions [illegible] will in a measure relieve the [illegible] blame. In either case it is due to the [illegible] people may know the extent of [illegible] and how to protect themselves.

[illegible], with the coast surveying [illegible]. Rockway is still here making [illegible] survey of the river. This is the [illegible] operations here, and if the sur[illegible] as far up the river as Portland, it [illegible] years yet to complete it.

[illegible] INTERESTING SUBJECT.—On [illegible] of this week Mr F S Ost[illegible] lecture at Philharmonic Hall [illegible] of "The French Revolution." THIS THING IS GETTING MONOTONOUS.—That's what Mark Twain's friend from Nevada said when the mule fell through the roof of his gopher hole cabin in the mountain side for the ninth time. It was the only plaint he ever uttered, a fact the more remarkable because he was a lawyer. This community personified may be as patient as Mark Twain's friend for ought we know, but it is getting everything. This man Shultz is the mule. He has fallen through the roof of our gopher hole cabin oftener than did Mark's friend's animal. He has jumped down into our restaurants and swallowed square meals in our barber shops from clean shave into our saloons for a smile into our most frequented streets for promenade into our houses of [illegible] and barns on the outskirts of the city for a snooze into our neighborhood blackberry patches to gobble the pickings of our darling little boys and girls etc etc. This thing is getting monotonous. Why don't Shultz go away and quit boddering? Or else come in and be taken dead or alive like a christian gentleman?

FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.—A Pomological Association for Oregon and Washington Territory was organized in this city on Saturday last. Mr Seth Luelling of Milwaukie is President, S W Brown of Vancouver Vice President, and Col Simeon Francis of Portland Secretary. The general object of the association is of course to promote the cultivation and improvement of fruits and to forward and protect the interests of fruit growers. The organization is in good hands and will doubtless be instrumental in doing much good. The first meeting under the constitution is to be held at Salem on the third day of the State Fair at which meeting officers are to be elected for the succeeding year.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD SURVEY.—Gen [illegible] who has charge of the Pacific section of the Northern Pacific Railroad arrived by the steamer Idaho last evening. He brought with him several engineers and the necessary supplies to outfit all the parties sent into the field. It is his intention to dispatch one of the parties up the Columbia about the middle of this week to commence work. The work of all the several parties will in a few days be allotted and then the surveys will be pushed with all possible dispatch.

THE WOUNDED MAN.—Mr Franklin the man who was shot Saturday morning is still living and the physicians have some hope of his eventual recovery though that event is hanging on very nicely balanced chances. At a late hour last night he was lying easy though very weak. The ball has not been found. Its course was traced upward to a point under the right lobe of the lungs beyond which it was thought dangerous to probe further.

REAL ESTATE CIRCULAR AND MAP.—Wm Davidson, Esq Real Estate Dealer Portland has issued a circular containing a condensed description of Oregon with a small map of the Willamette valley attached. The circular and map will serve a good purpose wherever distributed in giving information relating to the advantages of our State to those intending to move westward.

ANSWER THE CENSUS TAKER.—A few days since the telegraph informed us that several suits had been begun at San Francisco against persons who refused to answer the census takers. We learn that there has been some trouble experienced in this State by the census takers. The law prescribes a penalty for such refusal to answer. Everybody can answer easily enough and thus save trouble and vexation all round.

MORE LIGHT WANTED.—Everybody is convinced of the necessity of an increase of the police force. Another and scarcely less important want is more street lamps. Most all the villainies are perpetrated in dark places. A street lamp at every street intersection would be almost as good as doubling the police force. The city can afford it. Will the Common Council give us more light?

ARRESTED AND HELD FOR EXAMINATION.—On Saturday afternoon Joe Taylor William Johnson and Edward Johnson were arrested on the charge of assault with intent to kill and were held by Recorder Anderson to bail in the sum of $500 each to appear on Monday for examination. The charge was brought in connection with the shooting of Wm Franklin last Saturday morning.

SHIPPING.—The barks Almatia and Webfoot will be towed down the river this morning by the steamer Okanagan. The Webfoot is to complete cargo at Rainier having already a part cargo of produce. The Almatia goes to Cementville for a cargo for San Francisco.

THE LATE CONCERT.—NET PROCEEDS.—The receipts at the late concert for the benefit of the German and Hebrew schools, were $229 50 over and above all expenses.

MILITARY.—We are informed that a detachment of soldiers and a lot of horses will be sent up the river this morning destined for Camp Warner.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER.—The steamship Idaho arrived at about 6 o'clock last evening from San Francisco, with 263 passengers.

DESERTION OF SEAMEN.—On Saturday Capt Nelson of the ship Alpha sued out a warrant for the arrest of two deserters from the ship.

SENT UP.—Spud Murphy was on Saturday sentenced to sixty days in jail for stealing a horn from the circus tent the other night.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—This court will convene at 9 o'clock this morning.

Protect Your Eyesight

Milton's blindness was the result of overwork and dyspepsia. One of the most eminent American divines, having for some time been compelled to forego the pleasure of reading, spent thousands of dollars in value and lost years of time in consequence of getting up several hours before and studying by artificial light. His eyes never got well.

Multitudes of men and women have made their eyes weak for life by the too free use of the eyesight, reading small print and doing fine sewing. In view of these things it is well to observe the following rules in the use of the eyes.

Avoid all sudden changes between light and darkness.

Never read by twilight, or moonlight, or on a very cloudy day.

Never sleep so that on waking the eyes shall open on the light of a window.

Do not use the eyesight by light so scant that it requires an effort to discriminate.

Never read or sew directly in front of the light or window or door.

It is best to have the light fall from above obliquely over the left shoulder.

Too much light creates a glare and pains and confuses the sight. The moment you are sensible of an effort to extinguish that moment cease and talk, walk or ride.

As soon as the sky is blue and the earth green it would seem that the ceiling should be a bluish tinge, the carpet green and the walls of the same mellow tint.

The moment you are instinctively prompted to rub the eyes that moment cease using them.

If the eyelids are glued together on waking up do not forcibly open them, but apply the saliva with the finger—it is the speediest dilutent in the world—and then wash your eyes and face in warm water.

Cheap transportation of grain from the West via the northern lakes in barges is now attracting the attention of shippers. Barges with a capacity of 50 000 bushels of wheat are now building and a large steam tug with a capacity of 40 000 bushels has been completed and is now employed in carrying grain. This steam tug it is reported possesses sufficient power to tow three barges of 55,000 bushels capacity each and thus with its own freightage of 40 000 can transport 235 000 bushels at one trip. The tug however has recently arrived at Buffalo New York having also a bark in tow and the two vessels brought 80 000 bushels of wheat weighing 2 400 tons. The barges in course of construction are to have three short masts with a schooner rig and heavy canvas sails. The crew is to consist of six hands. This method it is believed has been proved to be successful and will therefore reduce the freight of grain from the Northwest.

OUR CITIZENS certainly deserve credit for the energy they display to make the Oregon Immigration and Labor Exchange a success and benefit to the State as well as the immigrant coming to our State. Every citizen should give all the aid in their power to help the large number of strangers coming to our State and not forget to inform them that Kohn & Fishel No 91 Front street have the largest stock of clothing in Oregon; other goods are of superior quality and sold at extreme low prices.

Address R. V. Pierce, M D 133 Seneca street Buffalo N Y and get pamphlet on Catarrh free or send sixty cents and get Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy. $500 is offered by the proprietor for a case of Catarrh in the head which he cannot cure. LITERARY NOTES

A new monthly is talked of, All the Year Round, edited by Charles Dickens Jr.

Mr James T Fields will have an article on Dickens in the August Atlantic.

Spurgeon recently announced a lecture to rich men only, none to be admitted to the Hall under forty thousand pounds sterling.

Within six weeks of their publication of "Lothair" the Messrs Appleton sold fifty two thousand copies of that novel. The sale in England in the same period was six thousand copies.

So valuable for its autographs is H. Vincent Butler's list of subscribers to Sumner's works that he has already had a cash offer of $1 000 for it which he has refused in order that he may fulfill his original intention of presenting it to Mr Sumner as a pleasing evidence of his friends.

The writer of "Ouida," [illegible], is said to be a Miss La Ramee whose father was a French officer. She lives with her mother at one of the large hotels in London and frequently gives parties there. She is neither young nor is she favored with the physical advantages which she lavishes on her heroines.

Bret Harte's volume of stories "The Luck of Roaring Camp" has received from the critics a more thorough, warm and general welcome than has except in one or two instances ever been awarded to an American book. Mr Harte is quite unanimously called upon to develop into the unique American novelist we have been looking for so long.

Boston, the Chicago Post thinks, is our literary Head Centre. Think of it a moment. Emerson Bancroft Motley Alcott Channing Lowell Whittier, Longfellow Holmes Weiss Wasson Garrison Hildreth Julia Ward Howe Alger Hale O'Connor Phillips, Shillaber Trowbridge Higginson Mrs Ritchie and how many others? Still for many years Boston must be the Mecca of our literary pilgrims.

Emmet Guard, Attention!—You will meet at your Armory at 8 o'clock this evening (July 25.)

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER NOS 525 AND 527 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

A Military Review at Berlin—Royal Pomp and Pageantry—Railways

[illegible] Chicago Evening Post

[illegible] May 28.—Since [illegible] kind [illegible] visit to [illegible] returning [illegible] into [illegible] description of what is to be seen [illegible] capital of the Emperor of Russia.

THE REVIEW

The [illegible] present were [illegible] twenty thousand and the [illegible] to [illegible] the plains of Kreutzberg a short distance from Berlin. The day was [illegible] been prepared for the occasion could not have been in any way better adapted. A slight rain fell early in the morning, which laid the dust, and when the troops arrived upon the ground it was in splendid condition and the [illegible] the arms, the horses, [illegible] all the equipments were in splendid condition [illegible] as though every one and everything were [illegible] to the great [illegible] in order [illegible] fight for Prussia.

The firing of the artillery was wonderfully rapid and all the movements of this most essential branch of the service [illegible] executed. The cavalry was composed of as fine looking a lot of men as I have ever seen, and the equipments and the horses were most magnificent. As the sun shone upon the bright helmets and breast plates of the Bismarck Legion in the distance it seemed like a mass of silver moving around. Following were regiments of lancers, hussars and a mass of infantry. The marching, and in fact all the movements were performed with the utmost precision. After some time spent in various exercises the troops were divided and a sham fight was had, and soon the whole field was enveloped in smoke from the firing of artillery and infantry. Yet as the smoke carried it away you could see the movements of the different legions as they apparently attacked each other and officers could be seen riding with break neck speed conveying the orders of the commander to various divisions, regiments, etc. I have never witnessed anything that was more admirably done or any spectacle finer. The "Rifle Artillery" performed wonders in the quickness of their movements, the handling of their guns and rapidity of firing them. The infantry was all their King could wish, and he may well be proud of them. The platoon firing was as though one gun had been discharged and their movements and changes of position were so well and quickly made that you would think they moved by magic.

THE CHARGE

The action closed by a grand charge of the cavalry. It was a wonderful sight to see about nine thousand horses rush across the plain, the infantry and artillery on both sides supporting them. A gun was fired from headquarters, the action instantly ceased and all the troops were immediately reformed and then passed before the King, his royal guest and their various staffs, some of the regimental bands performing the national airs of Russia while others played their own great favorite, "I am a Prussian; Do you know my colors?"

A COURTESY OF CLOTHING

I must not omit to mention that upon this occasion the King of Prussia wore the uniform of a Russian General, while the Emperor appeared in the dress of a General of Prussian hussars.

THE PROCESSION

When the troops had all passed in review a halt was made, and carriages came upon the field for royalty to ride in; the horses were surrendered to the grooms, and all commenced to return to the city. The King and Emperor in the first carriage, led the procession, following them the Queen, Crown Princess (Victoria's daughter) and children, Prince [illegible] and then General [illegible], as the people call him, "dear old papa") Wrangel, followed by the officers, soldiers, etc. The streets from Kreutzberg to the palace were lined with people, and the King was loudly cheered as he passed along on his return. Windows along were filled with ladies waving handkerchiefs and flags, and, shall I say, throwing kisses to the King, which he returned with bows and smiles.

THE KING

The brave old King looked indeed happy, much more so than I have ever seen any of our public men look at their receptions. There was such a happy, such a contented look about his whole face; he seemed so satisfied with all around him, and as he continued smiling and bowing in response to the loud cheers which greeted him, his looks seemed to say "I know you love me and I love you, too, and our own dear Prussia." "Got mit us" is the motto of our land. We will try and deserve it, that He shall always be with us. With His blessings we have accomplished much in the last ten years. Let us try to do more in the ten to come. And in my opinion he will make some more additions to Prussia in that time if his life is spared. You cannot help but notice the appearance of this man on horseback or in his carriage. He is seventy-five years old, and bears his age most wonderfully; and though twenty years the senior of the Emperor, who sat beside him, he was to all appearances the younger man. He did not look so careworn or have that sad and wearied looking countenance that was visible plainly upon the face of Russia's Emperor.

WHAT DOES IT SIGNIFY?

The people here imagine this friendliness and business portend some great event, and that some quiet understanding will be had that in a short time King Wilhelm will take a few of the straggling Duchies into his arms, while Alexander will be permitted to regale himself with a slice of his much-coveted Turkey. We shall see. In connection with this I may as well mention that the whole infantry of Prussia is now receiving an entirely new musket, said to be a great improvement upon their celebrated "needle gun." It will discharge about twice as rapidly as the one in present use and not become heated from constant firing. One thing is quite certain, Prussia now is not afraid of France, and if you were to hear the people you would think they were all Americans in their progression and valor and, like ourselves believe they are invincible.

SCENERY ON THE ELBE

From Dresden to Bodenbach, in Bohemia, is a very delightful excursion. It is as they call it here going to "Saxon Switzerland." You can go by steamer up the Elbe, and to a tourist it is by far the most pleasant to do so. Here you find a district full of fine mountain scenery on both sides of the river, narrow ravines, rocks, beautiful green valleys and mountains innumerable in the distance. Perched upon some high rock you see as you pass along the ruins of some old castle. You also pass Coningstein with its famous fortress, elevated some 200 feet above the river, and along the banks you pass many beautiful little villages, some of which are celebrated as bathing places, and on the whole the trip from Dresden to Bodenbach will well repay any one who makes it.

JOHN OF SAXONY

I must not omit to mention that while waiting at the Dresden station, I had an opportunity to see the King of Saxony. On my arrival I found several carriages with four horses and out riders, and upon inquiry as to what all this meant I was informed that the royal family were momentarily expected home from a railway tour. Yet, aside from the carriages and the liveried servants, no kind of demonstration was apparent. Soon the whistle of the locomotive could be heard and the train appeared on time to a second and immediately without any ceremony alighted the King, Queen and half a dozen ladies and gentlemen. As I stood upon the platform they all passed within a few feet of me. Hats were raised on both sides and the royal party proceeded through the waiting room to the carriages without any ostentation. All were dressed in the plainest manner and the King, to me, very much resembled Senator Trumbull, of our State, in his appearance. He, like the Senator when I saw him last, wore a very bad and rather unfashionable looking hat; in fact, I am sure that all his apparel was not made by the compeers of our Ely or Crapo, but rather by some of the tailors who lived in the days of Rip Van Winkle; and had I met him and his Queen, and not known who they were, I would have taken them to be well-to-do [illegible] perhaps [illegible] far [illegible] As they passed me I [illegible] could think of the great difference [illegible] appearance between Saxony's King and [illegible] The former [illegible] of the times, while Wilhelm [illegible] of the present and the future.

A ROYAL RAILWAY CARRIAGE

When the King and his [illegible] had departed I returned to the train as I wished to see the royal railway car, expecting to find something very [illegible] In this I was [illegible] disappointed. [illegible] which [illegible] Comfortable it was [illegible] But a comparison between it and one of our famous "Pullmans" would be to compare a concert saloon with Crosby's Opera House, so great indeed [illegible] difference [illegible] I was rather disappointed, but I had forgotten, for the moment, that [illegible] royal [illegible] and if cars [illegible] and queens [illegible] in these [illegible] times.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES,

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, [illegible] Skin Diseases [illegible] years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies; see that they are cured, and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating the disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay obtaining immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who will try to gain your favor with [illegible] certificates, to dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial), San Francisco. Post Office Box 268.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 268 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
